

this is a bad idea so you mean my VCR will no longer record show because some company wants me to buy a tv show to which the broadcast to the public for viewing by the public just so they can force you to buy a tapeing of it because you werent home to watch it thats crazy! i for one will turn off cable if this happens and i dont know turn to the internet instead!